"When we came for a romantic walk in the park, we didn't think we would be involved in an international crisis...This side of the line, that side of the line. Does it really make that much of a difference which side I am from?"

When a country's new border is drawn, a couple are divided by the line. Under the rigorous eyes of a brand-new border guard, they are trapped in an increasingly absurd nightmare, stuck in between two aggressive nations on the verge of war. A comic new play exploring the imaginary lines that divide us and the severe penalties for breaking them...

NEXT FULL LENGTH PRODUCTION

FOUR FLAT WHITES IN ITALY!!!!

by Roger Hall

directed by Ross Jordan with Assistant Director Braden Lister

Auditions: 19 May from 2 to 4pm
Newlands Community Centre

Production Dates: 28 August to 7 September

Four Flat Whites In Italy focuses on Alison and Adrian – both retired librarians who after scrimping and saving finally have enough money for a holiday with close friends in Italy. However complications arise and new neighbours Judy and Harry help them out and agree to travel with them.

We've all been there. You end up travelling with some friends, acquaintances or family, but after a few weeks, tempers start to fray, frustrations come out and relationships of all kinds are tested. Roger Hall's well-known comedy talent makes for a comedic journey through Venice, Rome and Tuscany.

CHARACTERS

ADRIAN (45-65)- Recently retired librarian from the University. Uptight.

ALISON (45-65)- His wife, who was also a librarian. Uptight.

HARRY (45-65)- Retired businessman, Had a plumbing supplies company. Bluff, outspoken, right wing.

JUDY (younger than Harry by a few years, trophy wife)- His second, younger (but not a wide gap), wife. Outgoing and sexy.
